STATESBORO, GA., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1903.

VOL. 3, NO. 35.

GRAND JURY PRESENTMENTS.

We the Grand Jury selected and sworn to serve at the Oct. Term of the Superior Court 1903 beg leave to make the following general presentments:

We have examined by committee the J. P.'s and N. P.'s books, and find them correct and well kept, except the following: The J. P.'s books in the 4th District, kept in part with pencil. The J. P.'s books in the 123rd dist. in several cases no itemized account of cost, where cases have been settled.

The N. P.'s and J. P.'s books in the 123rd dist. does not itemize cost as also the N. P. and J. P.'s in the 120th dist. We examined by committee the jail and find it to be in good condition except the roof of residence portion is leaky and needs attention at once, and the plastering in two rooms is broken and should be repaired.

We wish to call special attention to the sanitary condition of the jail and premises, and highly commend our Sheriff and his deputy for the splendid condition in which we find it. We have examined the court house and find same in fairly good condition except the roof leaks in some places and in portion needs painting and recommend that the authorities in charge give this their attention at once.

We have examined the Tax Digest for the year 1903 and find that a large percentage of the real estate is returned entirely too low and in several instances not returned at all. We also find lands returned as wild lands that should have been returned as improved lands. In our general inspections of Tax Digest we have made memoranda on same to which we have called the tax collector's attention, in this connection we recommend that our representative introduce a bill in the next session of the Legislature, said bill to provide for a board of tax assessors. And we suggest that said board consist of three tax payers from each Militia Dist.

We have examined the pauper's list and recommend the following: That Geo Lanier be allowed $3.00 per month, said money to be paid to W. M. Williams. That Mrs. Ella W. Bland and four children be allowed $7.00 per month. That Patsy Groover be allowed $3.00 per month, said money to be paid to Joseph Burke.

That Luck Williams be increased from $2 to $4.00 per month. That Robt Johnson be increased from $2 to $4.00 per month. We have examined the list of confederate soldiers and soldiers' widows and recommend no changes.

We recommend that if a bridge be constructed at a point on the Ogeechee river opposite Haleydale as now proposed by Sereven county and Mess Sharp and Blitch which will not cost less than $2,000.00, that this Bulloch county appropriate the sum of $400.00 toward said construction and that said bridge will be subject to the inspection and approval of the commissioners of this Bulloch county before said appropriation is paid.

We recommend that the misdemeanor or convicts of this county or any other county be employed on the public roads of this county if in the judgment of the county commissioners it seems advisable.

We further recommend that the application for the felony convicts be withdrawn. We find the various roads of the county in fair condition.

We appoint as book committee to examine the various books of the county officers and report at next session of Grand Jury at April term 1904 Groover, Geo E Wilson and J E McCran.

We recommend that our county treasurer confer with both banks in Statesboro and that he deposit the county funds in the bank that will pay the largest percentage on monthly balances.

We recommend that these presentments be published in "THE STATESBORO NEWS."

It has come to the knowledge of this Grand Jury that at the ensuing election Judge Beverly D Evans, who has for the past five years so ably, fearlessly and impartially, presided over the Superior Courts of this Circuit, and who has given such general satisfaction by reason of his ability, courtesy, and dispatch in the business of the Superior Court of Bulloch County and the Middle Circuit, and who has so endeared himself to the people of this county by his many bearing, courtly manners and social disposition will be a candidate to succeed Judge Fish on the Supreme Court Bench of Georgia. In view of this candidacy, we hereby take the liberty of endorsing him for the position with a full knowledge of his ability to distinguish himself upon the Supreme Court Bench of our State. While we regret to lose him as Judge of our Circuit, yet recognizing his fitness for the position he seeks, we hereby commend him to the people of Georgia and wish him success in his candidacy.

In the event our Superior Court Bench is made vacant by the promotion of Judge Evans we will be glad to see our able Solicitor and worthy citizen, Hon. B. T. Rawlings, succeed him on the Supreme Court Bench.

In taking leave of the Court we thank him for his able and comprehensive charge and instructions to our body. We also extend our thanks to our Solicitor General, Hon. B. T. Rawlings for his courtesy and advice, given our body.

J B LEE, Foreman
J E McCran Clerk
Bulloch County Georgia:
To the Grand Jury October term 1903, Bulloch Superior Court.

We the committee appointed by Grand Jury April Term 1903 to examine the books of county officers beg to make the following report:

We have examined the books of the Judge of the county court and find them correct, and that the Judge of said court has paid into the county treasury since his books were examined by the committee of October Term 1902, from fines and forfeitures, three hundred and seventy-two dollars ($372.32) and thirty-two hundredths dollars. We have examined the books of the court of ordinary for county purposes and find them correct.

We have examined the books of the Clerk of Superior court and find the same correctly kept; we find that in some instances deeds and mortgages were indexed out of the order in which they were recorded, and have called attention to same, and while this may cause some inconvenience, we regard such indexing as complying with the law. We recommend that in future, the minutes of the Superior court show the fact, if panels of jurors, is paid attention to same, and while this may cause some inconvenience, we regard such indexing as complying with the law.

The Sheriff's books we find correct and well kept. We have examined the books of the county Treasurer and find them correct. We find that he has received from all sources seven thousand four hundred twenty-five and sixty-two one hundredths ($7425.62) dollars, and his disbursements are ($4908.57). His balance including his commissions is ($2520.05).

We find the books of school commission correct and well kept. Total salaries paid to teachers for year 1902 $1748.35 Commissioner's Salary 600.00 Board of education's salary 68.00 Incidental expenses 58.95 Total disbursement 1284.40 Total receipts 1284.40 Balance on hand 273.45 We would impress upon the officers of the various courts the necessity of preserving the papers of committing courts so as to expedite the examination of jail records.

We recommend that the Grand Jury in selecting book committees, appoint on said committee some person familiar with the duty of county officers.

WITHOUT A TREMOR
Millard Lee Met his Fate on the Gallows.

Hanged in Jail at Atlanta, His Neck Was Broken and Death Was Instant.

ATLANTA, Oct. 30.—Millard Lee, the murderer of his sweet heart, Miss Lilla May Suttles, was hanged at 11 o'clock this morning in Fulton county jail.

The trap was sprung just half a minute before the hour. Lee's neck was broken, and physicians stated death was instantaneous. From the moment Lee was led from his cell until the moment his body was cut down just twenty-three minutes had expired.

"Have you anything to say, Millard?" asked Sheriff Nelms a minute before the trap fell.

"Only that young men should read their Bibles and pray. Take warning from me. Oh God have mercy on my soul," were the last words of the young murderer.

Lee was the most composed man in the gallows room. Save from the constant movement of his fingers and the occasional twitching of his lips, he displayed no emotion as he marched to the gallows, or as he stood while his arms and legs were being tied.

The execution was very orderly, and there was not the slightest hitch from beginning to end. Everything had been so carefully arranged that there was not a moment's delay.

Among those who witnessed the execution, was Dr. J. M. Suttles, father of the dead girl, who was only 17 years old. It was on May 20, 1902, that Lee fired the shot which took the young girl's life. It was in the little chapel at Ben Hill, nine miles from Atlanta just as the church services had concluded and the congregation had been dismissed. Lee brought the young lady to let him accompany her home, and when she declined, he drew his pistol and fired three shots. It was the third shot that proved fatal. Miss Suttles fell in the church aisle and died. Lee backed out of the church and made his escape, but was arrested the day following. His case had been pending in the courts.

Messrs. H. L. Croft and Elarbee Daughtry have been indicted by the Grand Jury, charged with the burning of the barn of Mr. F. M. Womack, near Portal some weeks ago. Croft was arrested on yesterday and gave a cash bond of $1000 for his appearance at the next term of Superior court. Daughtry has not been arrested yet but the warrant will be served on him within the next day or two.

Indigestion Causes Catarrh of the Stomach.
For many years it has been supposed that Catarrh of the Stomach caused indigestion and dyspepsia, but the truth is exactly the opposite. Indigestion causes catarrh. Repeated attacks of indigestion inflame the mucous membrane lining the stomach and expose the glands to secret mucus instead of the juices of normal digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by W. H. Ellis.

The good people of Bulloch county who are interested in the cause of education are now endeavoring to persuade the county commissioners of that county not to injure the school fund by working the convicts on the public highways. We venture to say that they will labor for naught. It is a sad these days to work the convicts and until the bad wears out striped clothes will be familiar sight on the highways of twenty or thirty counties of the state.—Courier-Dispatch.

A GOOD NAME.
From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and do their work with ease.—W T Easton, Boerne, Tex. They cure biliousness, torpid liver, jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen W. H. Ellis.

Hearst Cheered As A Candidate For President.
ATLANTA, GA.—The principal development in the visit of William Randolph Hearst, New York congressman and millionaire newspaper owner, yesterday was the clinching of the report that he is to be a candidate for the nomination for the presidency before the next Democratic national convention. While the visitor of course does not make the announcement himself, it may be stated as a fact that he will be in the race for the Nomination and that his name will certainly go before the Democratic National Convention. About 500 persons were at the union depot at noon today to meet the West Point train bearing William Randolph Hearst. A committee of prominent citizens had gone down the road to meet Mr. Hearst. When the party disembarked shouts of welcome resounded. Mr. Hearst was wearing a dark suit and a gray slouch hat and was easily one of the tallest men in the crowd. His white head could be seen above the heads of hundreds, who crowded about as he walked to his carriage.

To the Savannah Press correspondent Mr. Hearst said he considered the Democratic prospects were growing brighter every day and that the prevailing depression would cause dissatisfaction with the Republicans. He declined to discuss politics so far as he was himself concerned. Congressman Jim Griggs is with Mr. Hearst, left for New York at midnight.—Savannah Press.

Ben Rucker a young white man living near Blitch on the Sharp Road disappeared from home last week. He took his gun to go and for the ad that is the last time he was seen. A search has been made for him, but no tidings of his whereabouts can be had. It may be that he was accidentally killed in the swamp; or it might be that he took a notion to leave the country. He was about 22 years old, unmarried, and his father and brothers know of no reason why he should have left home.

One remarkable feature is: says Mr. Brewer, that everything is in readiness for the opening. There are now nearly 300 of the fastest horses in the country ready for the races. This feature of the fair is unusually fine. Our people should encourage the enterprise by their presence.

Mr. J. E. Brannen,
Agent Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company:
Dear Sir:
Please accept thanks for check of $1,000.00 in full settlement of policy No. 245848 on the life of my son, Glenn Jernigan, deceased. Seventy days ago you insured him for $10.70. He was strong and hale and while we mourn his loss I feel that the protection your company has thrown over our home comes nearer taking his place than anything else on earth.

You paid this claim on the eleventh day after the proof of loss was mailed to the Home office. For such early settlement, accept my sincere thanks. Though my son had been insured for thirty-eight days, your company paid the claim without the slightest objection.

My husband is today applying for a policy with you.

Rest assured that I shall always be a friend to the Penn Mutual of Philadelphia.

Yours very truly,
(Mrs.) W. H. Jernigan.

Short crops make short money, so make your dollars go farthest by buying your goods where you can get them at and below cost.

DEDICATION SERVICE
On Sunday one of the largest congregations ever seen at church service in Statesboro was gathered at The Methodist Church, the occasion was to dedicate their new house of worship.

Dr. W. C. Lovett, of Macon, editor of the Wesleyan Christian Advocate delivered the dedication sermon.

Mr. B. B. Reppard of Savannah was also here and took part in the ceremonies. Dr. M. M. Holland formally delivered the church over to Dr. Lovett; he being chairman of the building committee. Dr. Holland delivered a short but very appropriate little speech when he made the presentation of the church.

Every dollar both for the handsome building and for its furnishing had been paid. Many compliments were paid to the pastor building committee and to the contractor. Not a jar or hard feelings of any kind had found its way in to in the work while in progress at all. Mr. Longston has worked faithfully in and out of season and was the happiest man in the house on Sunday when he realized that this great work had been completed and paid for. He is entitled to the highest praise that Statesboro can lay upon him. Not

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for a great many years, and although I am past eighty years of age, yet I have not a gray hair in my head."
Geo. Yellott, Towson, Md.

We mean all that rich, dark color your hair used to have. If it's gray now, no matter; for Ayer's Hair Vigor always restores color to gray hair. Sometimes it makes the hair grow very heavy and long; and it stops falling of the hair, too.

It's a beautiful, cannot supply you, you a bottle. The name and give the name of your nearest express office. Address, J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

Chicago in Babylon.

President Harper of the University of Chicago has succeeded in securing from the Sultan the right to excavate in the neighborhood of Babylon. The university has now obtained permission to excavate in Tel Ibrahim. Application was made to the Sultan for permission to excavate in the neighborhood of Babylon, and after long delays it was granted. But further delays occurred and the trade was not issued. Then it was discovered that the Germans had received permission to explore the same territory. It is believed that the ruins of the temple in which Nebuchadnezzar offered sacrifices in 589 B. C. and also an extensive library of clay tablets, will be uncovered.

THE REWARD OF ECONOMY. Keweenaw—What's that old saying? "Take care of the pence and the pounds will take care of you."—Philadelphia Press.

Mrs. L. C. Glover, Vice Pres. Milwaukee, Wis., Business Woman's Association, is another one of the million women who have been restored to health by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MR. PINKHAM: I was married for several years and no children blessed my home. The doctor said I had a complication of female troubles and I could not have any children unless I could be cured. He tried to cure me, but after experimenting for several months my husband became diseased, and one night when we noticed a testimonial of a woman who had been cured of similar trouble through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, he went out and bought a bottle for me. I used the Vegetable Compound for three and one-half months, improving steadily in health, and in twenty-two months a child came. I cannot fully express the joy and the greatest of my life in my heart. Our home is a different place now, as we have something to live for, and all the credit is due to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Yours very sincerely, Mrs. L. C. Glover, 614 Grove St., Milwaukee, Wis."

Women should not fall to profit by the experience of these two women; just as surely as they were cured of the troubles enumerated in their letters, just so certainly will Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cure others who suffer from womb troubles, inflammation of the ovaries, kidney troubles, nervous excitability, and nervous prostration. Remember, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the curing woman, and don't allow any druggist to sell you anything else in its place.

AN APPALLING DISASTER

Passenger and Freight Train Collide in Indianapolis Suburbs, Scattering Death and Destruction. Sixteen Dead; Fifty Hurt.

A special train from Indianapolis, Ind., says: Fifteen persons were killed and over fifty injured, some fatally, Saturday morning by a collision between a passenger train and a freight train in the suburbs of Indianapolis. The passenger train, carrying 120 persons, nearly all of whom were students of Purdue university, and their friends, from Lafayette to Indianapolis, for the annual football game between the Purdue team and the Indiana university squad for the state championship, was on its way to the city. The freight train, carrying 120 persons, nearly all of whom were students of Purdue university, and their friends, from Lafayette to Indianapolis, for the annual football game between the Purdue team and the Indiana university squad for the state championship, was on its way to the city.

From Joy to Gloom. From the twelve passenger coaches were coming the joyful cries of a hundred rosters for Purdue, and the gala dress in coaches streaming, while in the front coach sat twenty muscular fellows trained to the hour, on whom the hopes of a brilliant victory on the gridiron were confidently placed.

Around a curve at the Eighteenth street car, Engineer Schumacher found directly in front of him the freight engine and coal cars moving slowly toward the side of the steel freight car. The crash hurled the passenger coach, and three front coaches against the steel freight car loaded with coal that plowed their way through and buried under a pile of wreckage weighing many tons fully sixty human beings.

The first car, in which were the players, was completely demolished, the roof being torn away and landing across a car. The second coach, containing the band of musicians, was partially telescoped, while the third was overturned and hurled down a 15-foot embankment.

The other coaches did not leave the track immediately after the crash. The passengers, men and women, began the work of tearing away dead and dying classmates and fraternity brothers. The young women performed heroic work. Though the bodies were in several instances horribly mangled—one completely and one partially beheaded—they took upon themselves the heads of the dying and injured and soothed their sufferings as best they could until the surgeons arrived.

A general alarm was sounded and every assistance the city could afford was rushed to the wreck, which was three miles from the business center. While the dead and injured were being carried to the morgue and the bodies of the dead were being buried, the work of tearing away dead and dying classmates and fraternity brothers. The young women performed heroic work. Though the bodies were in several instances horribly mangled—one completely and one partially beheaded—they took upon themselves the heads of the dying and injured and soothed their sufferings as best they could until the surgeons arrived.

THE STATESBORO NEWS,

(Incorporated.)
Entered at the post office at Statesboro, Ga., as second class matter.

Statesboro, Ga., Friday, Nov. 6, 1903

Published Tuesdays and Fridays by THE STATESBORO NEWS PUBLISHING COMPANY.

Tammany done up the Low crowd in New York by a great majority.

It looks as if the Democrats are coming to the front in Maryland and New York.

Only one New York paper supported the Democratic ticket, and that was Hearst's, and yet the ticket won by one hundred thousand majority more than two years ago.

Bullock Day.

Next Wednesday, Nov. 11th is Bullock day at the Savannah Fair. On that day the railroads will give low rates and hundreds of people from Bulloch will go down. The Bulloch exhibit will be one of the chief attractions, as it was at the Macon fair, and the people need not be ashamed to take a look at our part of the show.

Trade Is Good.

The cotton crop is small in Bulloch this year, but the fair price of sea island, will bring lots of money. The streets of Statesboro are full of wagons loaded with cotton, and the merchants are making a good trade. They are making collections as fairly good. They say that the people are saving their notes very promptly. We believe that our farmers generally be in good shape, be ready to face another year hope, and full bars and houses.

THE ELECTION.

Elections were held on last Tuesday in several states and the Democrats made considerable gains. New York city, McCallan Democrat was elected Mayor over Seth Low Republican Fusionist by 70,000 majority, whereas two years ago, Low was elected by over 30,000 majority. The Democrats carried Maryland by a good majority, and also won in Kentucky by a big vote. The Republicans won in Ohio, which state belongs Mark Hanna and the money barons. The outlook is towards Democratic success next year and it may be that the people will get tired of the crowd who now controls.

YOUR SUBSCRIPTION.

Remember that the printer has to live and pay bills. Many of our subscribers owe something for their paper, and many live several miles from town, and those can't remit by mail. Those who come to town can drop into the office and settle. If you will give attention to this small matter to you it will be a big help to us, for it is the little amounts that count and make the big ones. Your kind attention will put you in good standing with your county paper.

He Got Shot

Mr. F. N. Fletcher came near being killed a few nights ago. He and a friend were sitting before a fire in his house, when a No. 38 cartridge exploded in the fire and grazed Mr. Fletcher on the side of his head, and went into the door casing. It scared him and his friend nearly to death and they both thought at first Mr. Fletcher was badly hurt. Some child probably put the cartridge in the fire.

Remainder Of Bulloch Exhibit Arrived.

The remainder of the Bulloch county exhibit arrived early yesterday morning, and the work of transferring it from the cars to the grounds has begun. There are five carloads of material here, two carloads being additional to the exhibit displayed at the state fair.

The Bulloch county display is in charge of Mr. J. B. Miller assisted by Mr. L. I. Donaldson. Both were busy supervising the work of moving the exhibit from the cars to the buildings and in arranging the displays in order to show them off to the best advantage.—Morning News.

TOM WATSON WITH A SHOT GUN.

A letter received in Savannah yesterday says the town of Thomson has been in a ferment of excitement for two days on account of armed hostilities in which Tom Watson was seen to be the central figure.

Only Tuesday was the situation cleared through the action of intermediaries, who, in the role of peacemakers, used their good offices between the warring parties and restored the usual quiet of the town and induced the factions, into which a large portion of the citizens had resolved themselves, to lay aside arms and give over any hostile purposes.

For some time there had been relations of more than a strained character between Mr. Watson and what is known as the liquor element of the town. Several days ago some caustic remarks, accentuated with liberal cursing, were made about Mr. Watson in a bar-room by a young man of the town. These remarks reached the ears of Mr. Watson, who encountered the man who made them the next day at public relations well of the place.

As a man of indomitable personal courage, Mr. Watson is noted. He did not hesitate to demand an explanation Nor did the other hesitate. He admitted having made statements about Mr. Watson, whom he proceeded to curse. A personal difficulty was averted through the interference of bystanders at the time, but Mr. Watson's antagonist has several brothers and kinsmen, who rallied at once, heavily armed, to his support.

Then Mr. Watson concluded that it was time for him to make greater provisions for his safety than his bare hands afforded. He went to a hardware store and secured a double-barreled shotgun. He walked out upon the street, and only by a chance was not fired upon by the opposing parties. Reports have it that the negroes of the place "took to the woods," and the whites were on the verge of civil war, one element backing Mr. Watson against the other.

TURNER SCORED IN HOT SPEECH

Murphy Candler Says Prison Commission Chairman Stood in With Jim English's "Gang."

At the mass meeting held in Decatur this morning Murphy Candler, member of the house of representatives from DeKalb county, attacked Judge J. S. Turner, chairman of the prison commission of the state, saying that a grave doubt had existed in minds of many members of the legislature as to the entire disinterestedness of that gentleman when the convict lease bill was up for passage at the last meeting of the general assembly.

"When we were trying to pass the convict lease bill a grave doubt sprang up in the minds of the representatives as to the disinterestedness of Judge Turner. Instead of attending to the affairs of his office, which are purely executive, he was going about the state using his influence to keep the convicts under Jim English and his crowd who leased them for $300 a year, instead of leasing in a system whereby the state was to receive $175 per year for them."

These remarks were brought forth by a speech made by the county school commissioner, asking if it were wise to work the convicts instead of taking the amount to be used in the school fund.

Mr. Candler's remarks were roundly applauded, and at their conclusion it was unanimously decided to endorse him as state senator from the Thirtieth district which is composed of these counties.—Atlanta News.

THE UNRECOGNIZED.

BY CHARLOTTE TELFER.
It was by accident that she found there in the elevated train at 4th street, she was coming from some social affair. It was by necessity that she sat there; he was on his way home from work.

She was surprised when she saw him and furs and jewels. He was underdressed, and there was dust on his shabby clothes. They sat facing each other and yet neither one saw the other. Had there been an abyss of darkness between them they could not have been more completely separated. She did not know he sat there; he did not give her a glance.

If he had noticed her diamonds and the soft white hands he would have felt no bitterness; he did not know that she had never done a day's work in her life nor given society anything in return for what it had given her of comfort and luxury; he could not guess that, after all, she had no chance to be useful because he had been brought up to live in dress and riches and think vaguely.

And she, if she had seen him, with the scars of work on his hands, the wrinkles of worry about his eyes and the discouraging look to his shoulders, would not have understood that he was one of those whose labor meant scant living to themselves but a large profit to her husband. She would not have known that each yard of lace she wore the man opposite had helped to pay for. She did not realize that this man had given so much of his strength to his master labor that he had little left for friends and his family.

So it was that they rode on together in the same car, but in different worlds. And yet they were very much alike—those two. They were the fruits of the same tree one withered and shriveled because it hung in too strong a glare of merciless necessity the other unripe and hard because it hung in too dark a shade of individual prosperity. She had not worked enough and he had worked too much. She gave nothing and was damped; he gave all and was pressed for more.

But if they had only recognized each other; if they had only recognized the tips of their fingers across the social chasm. They needed each other and they did not know it. As brother and sister, conscious of each other's needs, the world would soon feel their strength.—Ex.
